Involvement Levels
Below you will see descriptions of possible involvement levels. Please SELECT ALL AREAS you would be interested in supporting our students.
<input type="checkbox"/> Business Advisory Committee - Become an involved leader on an Academic Advisory Board composed of industry, community and educational partners. Members must be willing to commit an hour a month. <input type="checkbox"/> Client-based or Capstone Projects - Fun and mutually beneficial way to connect students to your business. Students find and present creative solutions to a business-based problem either as a small project or a culminating project for their capstone course. <input type="checkbox"/> Internships - Host a student as an intern within your organization. Flexibility for both the business as well as the student will be key.	<input type="checkbox"/> Career and/or Career Fair Exhibitor - Serve as a presenter and speak with students regarding careers and/or college or university institution course offerings, co-curricular activities, facilities, and other programs. <input type="checkbox"/> Guest Speakership - Present to a group of students on your expertise within your given career field. Connect through a virtual platform or in-person to enhance their knowledge of your industry, work-based learning, career skills, opportunities, and other expertise topics. <input type="checkbox"/> Mock Interviews - Provide valuable feedback to students to help them improve their interview skills.
<input type="checkbox"/> Site Visit/Business Tour for Students or Teacher Externships - Host a group of students to visit your business facility or your institution. You may also host teachers, counselors and administrators to give them a glimpse of the day in the life within your business/organization. Both can be virtual or in-person.
